

The MULLET RAPPER

What's Happening in the Everglades City Area

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 26, 2008

© 2008, Snook Publications P O Box 617, Everglades City, FL, 34139 Volume II • Issue #71

Santa came to town on Friday, December 19, and was greeted by the Mayor who had organized his visit.

Parents and children waited patiently in the Community Center as the gifts were given out. Some of the presents were larger than their recipients.

Little Gator Clinic

You don't have to be sick to visit the clinic but you do have to be young!

Dr. Barnard told the Rapper that he welcomes visits from children up to 18 years old (and not pregnant) so he can get to know them and watch them grow on his chart. Although he does not keep drugs on the premises, he can prescribe when necessary.

G.B. Barnard graduated from the University of Tennessee and completed his residency at the University of South Florida. He practiced in Lakeland for 32 years as a board-certified pediatrician and has recently semi-retired. He is registered with license #ME24955.

He and his wife Kathy, a retired Registered Nurse, have been coming to this area for fishing & wildlife for 20 years and have a home at ORA.

Hours are posted in the Clinic window (next to the Thrift Shop) and will be on the Rapper calendar. There is no charge for consultations, thanks to the generosity the Barnards. Come along to meet them for a chat!

Copeland Baptist Performs

by Helen Bryan

An outdoor theater, with a CNN-TV Studio, was the setting at the Copeland Baptist Church on December 14 when Children's Director, Carol Sylvest along with ten children gave a wonderful performance of "PRIME TIME NEWS". This Play was first directed & performed at Everglades First Baptist church some 12-15 years ago by Director Carol, who had to again research the music and practice material with CNN news of the birth of Jesus, reviving it for today's youth. The Copeland area became alive with the fabulous hip music which we enjoyed throughout the program along with seeing the famous CNN characters: Rush Rathers played by Client Walls, Bonnie Chum played by Haley Sylvest, Kay Sera Weather Wonder by Kayla Grala, six foreign correspondents and reporters: Tawny Woods, Linzy Fails, Emily Brown, Natalie Thompson, Tyus Fails and Hector Roldan and Technical Director Wesley Syvest. Never before has there been a performance of equal enjoyment in my opinion. Our thanks to Carol for working so diligently with our youth. Immediately after their program a spread of refreshments was served by the Church. Rev. John Gilmore extends an invitation to each one to visit with them at Copeland Baptist.

From Savannah's Eyes

Oh boy! I am so glad I am out of school because now I get to spend time with my family and friends. Also my sister LaShaun is coming down from Sebring to celebrate Christmas with us. And, after Christmas, the New Year is sprouting out before our very eyes. Before you know it, it will already be 2009. On New Years Day everyone has a resolution and a wish. My wish is for world peace because we really need it right now. And my resolution is to ace that FCAT test at school. Because, ohhh, I want to ace that FCAT sooo bad! I hope everyone's wish and resolution comes true. Happy New Year to all!

With Love, Joy, and Peace,
 Savannah O.

Savannah Oglesby is in the 6th grade at Everglades City School and is a regular contributor to this paper.

MUSEUM NEWS

Members of the Friends of the Museum had their annual luncheon and meeting on Monday, December 15. New directors were announced: Myrna Baier, Jan Brock, Helen Bryan, Nathan Goff, Patty Huff, Virginia Kanning, Renee Rau, and Winnie Thomas. After the brief business meeting, CCM Volunteer Coordinator Mary Margaret Gruszka spoke about the extraordinary pride that our Friends have in their local Museum.

The highlight of the event was a tribute to Carol Moseman, formerly president of FME and an energetic worker. Patty Huff showed photos of Carol, including some from her childhood. Jane Rackley fondly and humorously remembered Carol as a majorette when they both attended Boca Ciega High School in St. Pete. Carol's memory will be perpetuated by the naming of the little theater at the back of the Museum after her.

The special exhibit in January is "Plume Hunters" and there will be a lecture by David Southall of Collier County Museums entitled "Plume Hunting from 1880 to 1910" at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 6. The talk is followed by a guided Walking Tour of Historic Buildings at 3:00 p.m. To make reservations for either, phone the Museum at 695-0008.

LOCAL HISTORY

We were sorry to read that Lucy House Storter passed away on December 20. She was born in 1920 in Chokoloskee and married Lem Storter (son of Rob) who died in 2005. She was the granddaughter of G.C. McKinney, the "sage of Chokoloskee".

For a full obituary, see the Naples Daily News, 12/23/08, and sign the guest book at www.naplesnews.com.

Fishing Report

by Capt. Bill Lindsay

January and February are the two hardest months to produce tarpon and snook for me. Cold fronts blast through and drop water temperatures and stir up the water with strong winds. Having said that, I have had great fishing days when the weather is good. When we get bad weather, you just have to find protected spots and fish deep & slow. If you like to catch sheepshead and black drum, you should have no trouble. Trout fishing can also be excellent. Capt. Bruce Hitchcock caught all he wanted on the outside points this week. When it's warm, snook and redfish will also feed. Tarpon will move into the back bays and rivers when it's nice. Offshore mackerel, bluefish, cobia, and grouper can be caught on the shallow Gulf wrecks. Many anglers count on live shrimp at this time of year. They can be used whole or in small pieces to tip jigs.

Capt. Bill Lindsay lives in Chokoloskee and has been fishing in the Everglades National Park for 27 years. In 1992 he was Master Angler of the MET Tournament.

VIP Report

by Shirley Leonard

I'm back. And does it ever feel good!

For readers who don't know who I am or that I was even gone, this will be my second winter working as a volunteer for Everglades National Park. Off season I spend in Massachusetts where I've resided for 38 years.

My job as an Everglades National Park VIP (Volunteer-In-Parks Program) includes reporting events in the Gulf Coast portion of the park for the Rapper. Sometimes other areas of the park become my focus. Last season, for example, First Lady Laura Bush visited the park for a day and spoke at the Royal Palm visitor center. She helped launch a conservation essay contest for students nationwide. Miami-Dade County fifth grade students spent the day with Mrs. Bush. I was honored to be able to attend when she spoke and to write about it for the Rapper.

As this new tourist/visitor season begins, the park has many new employees: law enforcement officers, seasonal rangers and volunteers. This is true for all sections of the park. They've come from all over the country, some from other national parks where they worked this summer. For many this is their first time in the Everglades. I urge residents to be patient with them as they explore around town and pepper everyone with questions about the area.

As I write this, it is a few days before Christmas and our visitor center is very, very quiet. As far as out-of-towners, tourists, and visitors go, Everglades City is quiet, too. This lull happens to a certain extent every year. Once Christmas Day arrives, the pace will pick up. Last year the increase was dramatic. Just how dramatic this time around remains to be seen.

The park keeps track of the number of visitors to its centers. Last year when it decreased in other parts of the park, it increased here. Overall, however, tourists did not come in the numbers they did the year before. Given the poor state of the economy worldwide this year, many expect the numbers to decline again. I will report about that as the season progresses.

Visitors to our center often ask what facilities, such as restaurants, motels, campgrounds, air boat rides, attractions, museums, etc., are available. The center has lists of these, but they may be out of date. We need to know if new businesses have opened and if others have closed since last year and would appreciate it if residents would let us know of any changes. We don't want to favor any one business over another and want our information to be accurate. To contact the center call, 239-695-3311 or drop in for a visit.

Shirley Leonard was a journalist in Quincy, Massachusetts, on The Patriot Ledger for over 20 years and a regular contributor to the Rapper last winter while she was a volunteer at the Park.

For a list of CHURCH SERVICES, see www.evergladesmulletrapper.com or phone us for a copy. A current list is also on the Notice Board outside the Captain's Table.

There was a "live nativity" at the Everglades Community Church on Christmas Eve. The people are real; the animals are statues.

Connie Ledbetter & Sue Gentry, both Crime Prevention Officers at Collier County Sheriff, are active with PAL (the Police Activities League) and bring us goodies all the time. They are seen here on December 19 with gifts for local children but returned after that with supplies for the Food Pantry and items for the Thrift Shop. The toys in the photo were donated by local stores or bought with funds raised by PAL.

Lisa Daffin directed the children in the "Birth of Jesus" play at Chokoloskee Church of God on December 21. She thanks Susie Chumat, Pastor Dantin, and all the participants for their hard work preparing the production in practical ways (props, costumes, helping out with rehearsals).

Joseph on the donkey was played by Alex Thompson with Mary (Sierra Dungan) in blue. Other participants were Tori Wells, Natalie Thompson, Cody Potter, Caleb Morris, Savannah Humphries, Haleigh Ellington, Natalie Thompson, Savannah Weeks, Houston Brown, Samantha Bruscini, Morgan Campbell, Destiny Vanleeuwen, Jill Campbell, and Brandon Buscini.
